

PRAY NOT PREY.

DR. MATTHEWS' ADVICE TO PROMOTERS OF MISSIONS.

DR. MATTHEWS' ADVICE TO PROMOTERS OF MISSIONS.

Centenary's Pastor Hits From the Shoulder
—He Frees His Mind at the Evangelical Alliance—Reports on Protestant Charities—Infidels as Disturbers at the Memorial Home—An Episcopalian Joins the Alliance—An Interesting Meeting

The Evangelical Alliance assembled this morning at the old Y. M. C. A. in regular monthly meeting. Rev. R. G. Brank led the devotional exercises, after which, in the absence of Rev. Lynn W. Allen, Rev. Dr. W. H. C. Allen, of the Wisconsin Synod, took the chair.

Mr. B. C. Buckingham presented the plans of the Central Mission, located at Eleventh and Locust streets, for the establishment of an undenominational church. Mr. Buckingham read a paper asking for the support and encouragement of the alliance in the work. The paper was signed by Dent G. Tutt, C. F. Schultz, Wm. E. Guy, H. M. Blosser, and others.

Wm. L. L. Prince, Charles C. Richards, Wm. Barnes, George Taylor, A. G. Peterson, John R. Lionberger, Stephen A. Bemis, John D. Davis, S. C. Buckingham, G. M. Walton, J. R. V. Ritter and E. O. Stanard, who announced that they associated themselves for the purpose of establishing a church.

THE WRONG KIND OF FRATING.

Rev. Dr. John Matthews of Centenary Methodist arose and asked whether the new church meant it would pay for workers on Centenary Church, Dr. Nicolls' and Rev. C. W. Smith's salaries.

Mr. Buckingham explained that there was no such intention of praying on any church.

Dr. Matthews said it was being done all the time. He said that he recalled that the people came up to the Centenary Church Sunday nights, and stand around till the young people's meeting is over and then drag off a score of his best young people to help them at the Centenary church. He said that to any right thinking person there was opposed to any such business. He is like the woman with ten children: she needs more help than the woman with only five. So he with his big church needs all the help he can get for his own work.

The Board of Counselors got ready to pass on the petition for the abolition of the Hagar system. The subject was laid over for one month. The usual monthly report was made by City Chaplain Hagerty.

TALKS ON CHARITY.

Five minutes were then given to each representative of a number of Protestant churches. Miss M. E. Holmes, of the Methodist church, gave a brief report of the workings of the Girls' Industrial Home and Mrs. Holmes presented the report of the Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mr. Morten, representing the Protestant Episcopal church, gave a very interesting report.

FOUNDING OF THE HOSPITAL.

After the reports of the churches, the founding and work done of the Protestant Hospital, which she declared has a record of progress not equaled by any other hospital in the world. One sentiment of the speaker excited the loudest applause. It was when she stated that

Rev. Fred Lack gave a very interesting picture of the doings of the Provident Association. He said that charity by the city is a ruinous tion. Mr. Luck was so earnest in his talk that the chairman could hardly induce him to stop. He said that he was not at all excited much amusement by his efforts to make "just one point more," in spite of the gavel's commands.

MUSIC AFTER THEM.

Capt. Kitwood then closed the talk by a few remarks on the work of the Bethel, in the course of which he told the preachers that he was glad to see that the "old men" went down into the slums for them, or sent out consecrated men who would. He spoke of the converts who had gone out from the Bethel and the number of "saved" men. He said that if some of the Bethel's spiritual children were not in Centenary. Dr. Matthews to his wife to obtain in his vigorous way that he was not opposed to missions, he was glad to see them doing the work they were doing, and he would see and see his workers taken out of his church.

AN EPISCOPALIAN JOIN.

Dr. Merrill announced that the next meeting would be the opportunity for different nationalities and to their religious needs, etc. Therefore the meeting adjourned a more than usually interesting announcement was made that the Rev. Dr. C. C. Reed of Mount Calvary Episcopal Church had accepted membership. Mr. Reed was unanimously years. This is the first Episcopalian minister to leave Albany since 1860, when he was 62 years ago. Mr. Reed is extremely "low church" and has affiliated a great deal with the Evangelical Christians.

The Adjournment then adjourned till the last Sunday in April.

TO KEEP OUT INFIDELS.

After adjournment Mrs. Springer was asked what was the reason for the fact that only those professing a belief in Christ are admitted to the Memorial Home. She said that was the provision adopted six months ago to keep out infidels, and she was not to be disturbed by elements in the Home. There were one or two in the Home who did not believe in the

Dr. Matthews also told a reporter that he admitted that the missions needed workers, but he did not believe all were needed who were drawn from his church regularly. Dr. Tudor had had the same trouble when he was here. It is not so bad now and he didn't propose to have it go on if he could stop it.

Adam Both Grocery Company, agents for ap-jack flour.

The Marietta Celebration.

MARIETTA, O., March 22.—The arrangements for the Centennial celebration of April 7 and before completed. The State Historical Society will have a meeting on the evening of the 6th, at which addresses will be made by several prominent speakers. Among those expected is Gen. Wager Swayne. The principal address on the 7th will be made by Senator Horace M. Massachusetts. Mr. Jevons Palmer has charge of the arrangements, and to him all communications should be addressed.

---

CARONDELET JOTTINGS.

The parishioners of St. Boniface Church are having the church remodeled and painted.

The fact that the De La Salle express trains were delayed fully an hour this morning owing to a landslide near Sulphur Springs, O., on the Iron Mountain road.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Sabatini school library of the Carondelet Presby-terian church will be given by the patrons of the church on April 8. The affair will be man-

Local option meetings under the auspices of the Rev. G. W. West, of the Methodist church, and the Rev. G. W. West, of the Methodist church, on April 8 and 15 respectively. Ben Deering, L. W. Allen and Mesdames E. P. Johnson and E. A. Johnson were the speakers.

An engine 306 of the Missouri Pacific was running south on the Iron Mountain Railroad for a trial trip about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. It jumped the track at the Ivory Station and ploughed into three freight cars that were standing on the side track, knocking them into splinters and tearing up the track in a terrible manner.

The rising of the river is causing havoc in the "bottoms" of Illinois, near East Carondelet. A number of settlers in that locality are compelled to move farther back on the shore to be out of harm's way. The country round Arsenal Island is covered with water. The only place where the Illinois Central, St. Louis & Carondelet Railroad are using the high water cradle in transferring cars from the river to the transfer boats, as is also the Congue Railroad.

Boys' Knee-Pant Suits

In Norfolk and other styles. Suits with belts and numerous styles Plaited and Plain Back Suits. And for the Large Boys, ages 14 to 17, Square and Round Collared Suits, 2-Button and 3-Button Cutaway Frock Suits, made from very beautiful styles, light and medium-light colors, rough and soft-finished Cheviots and fine Worsted, Diagonals, Cassimeres and Suitings, made by us with great care from the best styles (many of them made especially and only for us) of English, Scotch, French and American fabrics. They are styles not found in the stocks of any other dealer, and are made by the manufacturers of the ordinary class of clothing.

We strive each season to show a decided improvement in the style and make-up of our clothing. This season the results are very satisfactory, and we take pleasure in asking buyers, who are looking for things new, nobby and stylish, to come and see what we have to offer.

BROWNING, KING & CO.,

COR. BROADWAY AND PINE.
D. C. YOUNG, MANAGER.

---

REAL ESTATE.
and Prices Obtained—The Day's Transactions.
ate market can barely be said to

Catarrhal Dan
To be freed from the dangers of while lying down; to breathe
soundly and undisturbed; to ri
head clear and strong.

good start owing to the adverse weather, but it is anticipated that record will have been made. The outlook is, as previous negotia- tions of the office have been earnest and anxious for other business, promise of an early start, both for prominent business and pleasure places. It will require a little more time to get the season in lots passably presentable in addition and until there is an improvement of the autumn weather. Outside property will sell very

SALES.
Mrs. J. H. sold the following descriptions of property:
A brick dwelling and 25x30-foot
lot on 2107 Biddle street, the property of Mrs. J. H. was sold to Mrs.
J. H. for $2500.00. The property
was purchased for investment
and sold for $5000 per annum.
A brick dwelling and 25x34 feet of lot on 2107 Biddle street, the property of Mrs. J. H. was sold to Mrs.
J. H. for $2500.00. The property
was sold for a residence to Mrs.
J. H. for $1,640.
A north line of Evans avenue, between Foster and Pendleton, fronting the property of Benson, was sold at $21 a foot.

LUSTY BEARD, who will live in a new dwelling,
 LUSTY AVENUE AGAIN.
 avenue boom that has attracted the attention of speculators. The buyers have started out vigorously
 inuring with a $7,500 purchase.
 who, bought on the avenue was the purchase
 's deal was made with the property, Herman Haueser.
 Sayers a lot of 234 feet front of 70 feet next to the Hall at the southeast corner
 Christy avenue. Mr. Sayers

Belleville.
 One, aged 55 years, died at the yesterday. He was admitted burg, aged 24 years, died last residents' residence, on Pleasant danger of this city has been ap-position in the Interstate Comment at Washington.
 An Executive Committee of the Congressional District meet at the afternoon for the purpose

for the convention to name the National Convention.

in constructing a new reservoir for the city of St. Louis, which will be twenty feet deep and have a storage capacity of 150,000,000 gal. It will be ready for use by the summer of 1908.

labor party held a meeting at the city yesterday and committees of five for each ward to ascertain the names of the candidates were for all the various wards of the city. At the next Sunday's meeting will be nominated.

Erhard, one of Belleville's

NEW YORK, March 23.—Mrs. Julia B. Badesau, who died at an early hour this day. He had been ill for some time. Richard was in the Civil war, served with distinction in both the Civil wars, and was a member of the Knights of the K. and also of the Knights of the K.

My Laura's hands are smooth and soft,
I love to feel their touch;
Yet how she keeps them so I oft

Have wondered very much.
 "Tis Ivory Soap," she archly cried,
 "I use no other spell,—
 And as I clean all else beside,
 My hands improved as well."

A WORD OF WARNING!

many white soaps, each represented to be "just as good as the OT, but like all counterfeits, lack the peculiar and remarkable qua-

... risk for ... Ivory Soap and insist upon getting it.
Copyright © 1964 by General Mills, Inc.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch,

PUBLISHED BY THE DISPATCH PUBLISHING CO.,
JOSEPH FULTON, President.

(Entered at the Post-Office at St. Louis, Mo., as second-class mail matter.)

TERMS OF THE DAILY.
One year, postage paid, every afternoon and Sunday morning.....$10 00
Six months..... 5 00
Three months..... 2 50
By the week (delivered by carrier)..... 20
Sunday Edition, by mail, per year..... 3 00
Subscribers who fail to receive their paper
regularly will confer a favor upon us by reporting the same to this office by postal card.

THE WEEKLY.
One year, postage paid.....$1 00
Six months, postage paid..... 50
All business or news letters or telegrams
should be addressed

POST-DISPATCH,
515 and 517 Market street.

TELEPHONE NUMBERS.

Editorial Rooms.....201
Business Office.....255

London Office, 32 Cockspur Street, Chancery
Cross.

HIGH-WATER MARK, 54,420.

The circulation of the DAILY
POST-DISPATCH in the City of St. Louis is larger every week than that of any other newspaper in the City.

MONDAY, MARCH 28, 1888.

AMUSEMENTS TO-NIGHT.

GRAND-Stoddard Lecture, OLYMPIC-"She."
PEOPLE'S-"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." FORD'S-"Twin Lots."
STANDARD-"Baruch King."

The indications for twenty-four hours, commencing at 3 p. m. to-day,
for Missouri are: Fresh to brisk southerly winds; fair weather, lower temperature.

The Great Western Railway Trust is the next one.

The State Board of Equalization is to have another whack at the Kansas City assessments.

One good result of the Q. strike is the disclosure of the attempt to form the proposed Railway Trust.

If Kansas City lard men are innocent
they should be awarded heavy damages;
if guilty, the penalty is not too good
a place for them.

The mist appointments of Secretary BAYARD are enough to make us shudder at the suggestion of the name of Chief Justice BAYARD.

ACCORDING to the testimony before the Congressional Committee, the more there is of cotton-seed oil the less there is of flourid carbon-grease in Chicago's and Kansas City's lard.

In the little controversy between JAY GOULD and the gamblers who are trying to make money out of his operations it is hard for the impartial observer to distribute his sympathy justly.

The charges of conspiracy against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy management are not made by any enemies of the railroad; on the contrary, they are made by a railroad corporation.

The news of the improvement in Chairman Mills' health is good news for the country. The man who is in charge of the work of tariff reform is at present the most valuable man in public life.

A CONSPIRACY on the part of a railroad corporation to bring about a strike of its own employees is a step in advance of all precedent, but this is what the Rock Island charges against the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy.

If there was behind the proposed indictment of Mr. GOULD no motive but "a newspaper, a cable company and a woman," why does he hide behind a statute of limitations? Why does he not come out of that hiding place and defy them?

The situation of the Tory party is in-dubious in the extreme. It has to take a bitter radical dose from the hands of a Tory Ministry or go out of office, and the vote sustaining the Ministry on that measure will be, as all the world knows, a Liberal triumph over Tory defeat and humiliation.

BEFORE the corn and pork area went to the Northwest, and before the chief bulk of the hog-killing and pork-packing had been concentrated in the hands of the Chicago and Kansas City Armour, hard was never an object of suspicion. Now the analysis of it is enough to give a whole nation the nightmare.

The evidence given by Mr. BARTLE, a retired St. Louis pork packer, as to the manner in which he was wont to make
"refined steam lard," is probably embellished to a certain extent with touches
of fancy, but at the best it makes a poor showing for those who are trying to secure legislation against cotton-seed oil.

SPEAKING of the proposed indictment Mr. JAY GOULD explains his reluctance to submit the question to an ordinary jury
by saying that he would be willing to leave it to a jury of his peers, consisting of the presidents of leading trusts in New York, to judge his Kansas Pacific operations and to condemn them if not found in strict accordance with trust methods and Wall street ways. He stands for vin-dication on the proposition that his conduct was strictly professional. We should have no use for penitentiaries if "a jury of his peers" were construed to mean a jury of counterfeilers for counterfeilers, a jury of pirates for pirates, and that each man was to be tried by his own code of law and morals.

NEW POINTS FOR THE COURTS.

Hon. ROBERT T. LINCOLN as attorney for the Rock Island road answered the Burlington's complaint in a way that shed some new light on the strike trouble and raises a very important question for Judge GRESHAM to decide. The answer directly accuses the Burlington of trying to coerce
the other roads into joining a gigantic railroad trust and putting all competitive
business under the direction of a board of control. It charges that, in pursuance of this coercive purpose, the Burlington
deliberately caused its Brotherhood engineers to strike, meaning to bring a great strike trouble on the other roads in addition to the rate war, by forcing them to exchange freight with it after it had employed all the engineers there were outside of the Brotherhood. It is admitted that the Rock Island did, under these circumstances, for a time refuse to haul freight for the Burlington, because there was danger that such service would cause a strike which would entirely and for an indefinite period of time render the Rock Island unable to serve the public as a common carrier. But as showing that the refusal was not willful, the answer states that the Rock Island resumed exchanges with the Burlington as soon as it could arrange with its engineers to do so with safety to its own interests and with due regard to the interests of the general public. The allegation of such facts in regard to rate wars and strikes, and the question whether they justified the Rock Island's refusal, will give Judge GRESHAM
a chance to deliver an unusually interesting decision.

INGALLS AS A SEER.

Senator INGALLS is now writing alarming letters to his friends for publication,
telling them of rebel plots and blood-curdling Democratic designs discovered by him. But his power as a Titus Oates and his credit as an alarmist were seriously impaired by that boomerang speech
he hurled at the country the other day.
"The Corcoran Art Gallery full of pictures of Rebel Generals in uniform, with not a single Union commander to keep them company," will not scare the people as much as it seems to have scared him.
He will not surely convince them, as it seems to have convinced him, that "the Southern Confederacy is now an active organized political power as much as it was in 1861." They will simply say this is another one of the spectral horrors conjured up by the diseased mind which the other day saw a soldier of the Confederacy in Gen. McCLELLAN, and an ally of the Confederacy in Gen. HAN-COCK. The wonder will be that INGALLS did not see something worse than pictures
of rebels in the Corcoran Art Gallery;
that he did not see rebels themselves with hot blood dripping from their swords, a live army of rebel butchers reeking with the slaughter of loyal men and thirsting for more.

LAST year the free imports amounted to more than half of the entire imports,"
says a tariff editorial in the Globe-Democrat,
and for proof a statement follows that the free imports amounted to $234,- 221,181 and the dutiable to $458,068,637.
This would make "the entire imports"
$692,319,970, but being convinced that 234
million is "more than half" of 692 millions the ready reckoner of Fourth and Fifth exclaims: "These are good figures to confront the free-trader with."

Two Cable Specials.

From the Post-Dispatch from the Globe-Democrat
Thursday, March 22. Sunday, March 25.

Dr. Mackenzie in a letter to a friend told of a patient who had been operated on for cancer. "What you tell me to a friend, heard of my conduct a doctor in Stettin, in reference to the per- says: 'It is impossible for the operation for me to rectify ation of tracheotomy the numberless falsehoods of Stettin. In a letter written to me by a friend, I have seen a sick at San Remo was duties toward the Entreaty. I controlled people. You can understand the patient's pulse and stand that the stories was the first to con- about tracheotomy are gratulate Dr. Brammann entirely false. All I upon the success of the did during this opera-operation. As the op- patient's pulse. I was at my urgent request the first to congratulate self-evident that I late my colleague, Dr.
cannot have made any Brammann, on the successful minimizing it during the operation, which was effected under my pressing demand, being convinced of its urgency.'"

MEN OF MARK.

JOHNATIS DONNELLY sailed for Europe Sunday.

Word has come of the death of M. Richard,
who gave France her first system of telegraphic wires.

The present William Lloyd Garrison is said to be the owner of a tongue as sharp in public discussion as was his father's.

Col. Sir W. BARTLETT, aged 85, is the oldest member of the House of Commons, while Marquis Carmarthen, aged 22, is his baby.

MR. GARDNER is to write a reply to Ingersol's attack on Christianity, and his defense of the faith of his fathers will be published in an American magazine in May.

Another of the "coming" American reformers seems to have arrived. Ten thousand and copies of W. H. H. Murray's "Mamelons, a Legend of the Sargenay," were sold in three weeks.

Porto Laro's jubilee has turned out even a bigger cash success than was expected. He has already received gifts valued at $10,000, and the offerings are still pouring in.

The Crown Prince Nicolas of Russia, who is now 17 years old, is described as an affectionate, warm-hearted boy who is a great favorite with every one and who possesses democratic notions.

GEORGE BANCROFT, the octogenarian, politician and historian, the only private citizen admitted to the privileges of the floor of the Senate, and the only person to whom this courtesy is extended by name.

The present German Emperor is not the first Frederick III. of Germany. During the period from 1440 to 1488 Frederick III., surnamed
"the Pacific," a member of the house of Hapsburg, was Emperor of the old German Empire.

WILLIAM D. HOWELLS, the novelist, was a typesetter, and so was Bret Harte, and so was blacksmith, Frank Stockton was an engraver, and John G. Whittier was a farmer with slight interference with his pen.

FRANZ REINHARDT, Kaiser Wilhelm to
a clock that wanted winding up every day;
also to a horse that must be well spurred before he would leap a fence. The Chancellor himself carried the key and wore the spurs.

THOROLD ROGERS, who has been elected
Professor of Political Economy by the University of Oxford, England, will receive a salary of $3,000 a year. He will have an opportunity to put into practice some of his economical theories.

MR. A. BRONSON ALCOCK was a vegetarian, and often criticized meat eaters harshly. To one of them he declared one day that the eater
of nation became a sheep, the eater of bird,
becomes a hog, etc. "And is also true," interposed the other, "that eaters of vegetables become small potatoes."

ACCORDING to the Star, of London, Mr.
Herbert Gladstone bears a striking physical resemblance to his illustrious father of years ago, and speaks with "the same seductive sweetness of accent, the same light, silvery tone, the same unflinching evenness and smoothness of pronunciation. Even in the matter of his speech," adds the journal quoted, "the son does no discredit to the sire."

WOMEN OF THE WORLD.

MRS. PATTI is said to be preparing her autobiography.

PRESIDENT ELIOT of Harvard says that women should never lecture to young men.

A GRANDDAUGHTER of Charles Dickens is now a type-writer and copies MSS. for a living.

MRS. LOUISE CARLE, daughter of the novelist, is making quite a reputation as an illustrator of stories.

MRS. A. H. HOLLOWAY has been awarded a contract to clean the streets of Buffalo for five years.

MRS. CHARLES CROCKER has given $10,000
towards the purchase of a site and the erection of a building for the Young Women's Christian Association of San Francisco.

At the approaching elections for School Trustees in New Jersey women can vote.
They are also eligible for School Trustees.

MRS. MCKENNA, wife of the New Jersey
Senator, will go to Europe in May to educate her two daughters.

MRS. GEORGE GOULD decided to leave the baby at home when she and her husband started for Florida. The baby was therefore not in the reef off California State, and the ground upon which it was obtained was desertion. When she began proceedings here
she encountered a vigorous opposition.
Though willing to indulge his wife's desire for a separation, Mr. Hopkins was averse to having his name dishonored by a scandalous proceedings as she proposed. Mr. Gould exposed his cause and said publicly that he would give his friend all the assistance
he could to defend his good name.

Rumors of a cross-bill were constantly being spread by the friends of the matter, but were not confirmed by any of the reason, according to Mr. Gould's friends,
the matter was placed in the hands of Dillon
and Swayne, the lawyers of the Gould corporation, and it is said they not only gave Mrs. Hopkins' lawyers, John Root and George Bliss, to understand that they would bring a counter-action, but intimated that they would name a co-respondent who could not afford the ex-posure. Of this man's identity there have been three versions. One names a prominent member of the St. Louis bar, another a well-known lawyer, and still another a well-known Wall street operator.

AN ASSORTMENT OF AFFIDAVITS.

Mrs. Hopkins lived at 1 East Forty-seventh streets, which adjoined Jay Gould's house, and is now George Gould's house. As one of Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, perhaps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop. When
Mrs. Hopkins began her suit for absolute
divorce, she gave in the morning to Gould's
servants, and, well, per-
haps others than his servants, made
affidavits (it is intimated that
Jay Gould made an affidavit himself), and Mr.
Gould's friends said last night, the rookings
of the house were given in the morning to
Gould's servants and in the family of Mr.
Gould, too. They could not help noticing,
for the back windows of Gould's house looked
right out on the Hopkins' front stoop.

MTI INTERVIEW HOW to MAKE MONEY

MILLINER!

GRAND OPENING OF

SPRING MILLINERY

$22,500

IN CASH FOR

OF KING TEEN CIGARETTE SMOKERS

TAKES PLACE
Tuesday and Wednesday,
March 27 and 28.
BE SURE YOU ATTEND.
You will see the Latest and Most Correct

CIGARETTE SMOKERS
WHO USE
WM. S. KIMBALL & CO.'S
Satin, Regal, Athletic, and Four in Hand,—Straight Cut;

*You will see the Latest and Most Correct
Styles for the coming season.*

PENNY & GENTLES

S. W. Corner Broadway and Franklin Av.

ber 6, 1887. Mrs. Smith complained that her husband subjected her to many indignities and rendered her condition intolerable. Finally he deserted her. She asked for restoration of her maiden name.

FISHEL VS. FISHEL.
Nantz, Fishel vs. Fishel, case of divorce.

An Opium-Eater's End.
James C. Wright, a chronic morphine and opium eater, died at his boarding-house, 1234 North Third street, at 9:15 this morning, without medical attendance. He was an American.

Four in Hand,—Straight Cut;
Fragrant Vanity Fair, Superlative, Little Jockey,
And Velvet Brands.

SAVE YOUR EMPTY BOXES AND WRAPPERS.

The Greatest Number Secures First Prize of $1,000 Cash.

$22,500.00 IN CASH

Maria Fligel applied for a decree of divorce from her husband, who was married in January, 1875, and the separation took place in December, 1887. Mrs. Fligel complained of her husband's conduct as particularly brutal and, which rendered it impossible for her to live with him. She asked that her maiden name be restored to her.

FRIEDMAN VS. FRIEDMAN.
Elizabeth Friedman sought a decree of divorce from Christoph Friedman. They were married in Manhattan County, New York, and they lived together until December, 1886. Mrs. Friedman alleged that she was subjected to cruel and barbarous treatment on the part of her husband, who beat and whipped her, called her vile names, and threatened to kill her. Her health and rendered her condition intolerable. She was compelled to leave him in the summer of 1887, and she asked that her maiden name be restored to her, and that the mother ask for their custody together with the alimony for their support.

DEITZELL VS. DEITZELL.
Matilda Deitzell applied for a decree of divorce from Henry Deitzell. They were married December 8, 1872, and they lived together until January, 1884. Mrs. Deitzell alleged that her husband abandoned her without any cause or provocation, and utterly failed to provide for his family. There were three children by the marriage, and the mother asks for their custody.

FRANK VS. FRANK.
Elizabeth Frank sought a decree of divorce from her husband, who was married in January, 1875, and the separation took place in December, 1887. Mrs. Frank complained of her husband's conduct as particularly brutal and, which rendered it impossible for her to live with him. She asked that her maiden name be restored to her.

SCREED VS. SCREED.
Elizabeth Screed sought a decree of divorce from her husband, who was married in January, 1875, and the separation took place in December, 1887. Mrs. Screed complained of her husband's conduct as particularly brutal and, which rendered it impossible for her to live with him. She asked that her maiden name be restored to her.

The following amounts in cash will be distributed on each of the following dates: July 2d, October 1st and December 25th, 1888.

Cash Gifts each of $1,000, amounting $3,000		75 Cash Gifts each of ..... $25
$	3,000	75	$1,875
"	500	"	15
"	250	"	10
"	100	"	5
"	50	"	2
"	25	"	1
			$22,500

The following amounts in cash will be distributed on each of the following dates: July 2d, October 1st and December 25th, 1888.

Cash Gift of ..... $1,000		25 Cash Gifts of ..... $25
$	1,000	25	$625
"	500	"	10
"	250	"	5
"	100	"	2
"	50	"	1
			$7,500

Maria Fligel applied for a decree of divorce from her husband, who was married in January, 1875, and the separation took place in December, 1887. Mrs. Fligel complained of her husband's conduct as particularly brutal and, which rendered it impossible for her to live with him. She asked that her maiden name be restored to her.

FRIEDMAN VS. FRIEDMAN.
Elizabeth Friedman sought a decree of divorce from Christoph Friedman. They were married in Manhattan County, New York, and they lived together until December, 1886. Mrs. Friedman alleged that she was subjected to cruel and barbarous treatment on the part of her husband, who beat and whipped her, called her vile names, and threatened to kill her. Her health and rendered her condition intolerable. She was compelled to leave him in the summer of 1887, and she asked that her maiden name be restored to her, and that the mother ask for their custody together with the alimony for their support.

DEITZELL VS. DEITZELL.
Matilda Deitzell applied for a decree of divorce from Henry Deitzell. They were married December 8, 1872, and they lived together until January, 1884. Mrs. Deitzell alleged that her husband abandoned her without any cause or provocation, and utterly failed to provide for his family. There were three children by the marriage, and the mother asks for their custody.

FRANK VS. FRANK.
Elizabeth Frank sought a decree of divorce from her husband, who was married in January, 1875, and the separation took place in December, 1887. Mrs. Frank complained of her husband's conduct as particularly brutal and, which rendered it impossible for her to live with him. She asked that her maiden name be restored to her.

SCREED VS. SCREED.
Elizabeth Screed sought a decree of divorce from her husband, who was married in January, 1875, and the separation took place in December, 1887. Mrs. Screed complained of her husband's conduct as particularly brutal and, which rendered it impossible for her to live with him. She asked that her maiden name be restored to her.

The following amounts in cash will be distributed on each of the following dates: July 2d, October 1st and December 25th, 1888.

Cash Gifts each of $1,000, amounting $3,000		75 Cash Gifts each of ..... $25
$	3,000	75	$1,875
"	" 500, " 1,500	150	" 15, " 2,250
"	" 250, " 2,250	300	" 10, " 3,000
50	" 1,000	675	" 5, " 8,675
"	" 250	1,250	" 1,250
			$22,500

It is that impurity of the blood which produces the discharges or swellings in the neck, which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous sores, and other diseases, and which enters upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be Cured?
By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by its curable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and reliable.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION.
The person sending to our address the greatest number of empty 5, 10, 15 or 30 cent packet wrappers or boxes of Kimball's Straight Cut, Fragrant Vanity Fair, Superlative, Little Jockey and Velvet brands, with stamps mutilated, will be awarded the first gift of $1,000.00, to the next, the second gift of $500; to the next three, the third gift of $350 each, and so on, until all are distributed.

John Frank asked for a divorce or divorce from his wife, Mary Ann. He took place at Strasburg in August, 1879, and they lived apart ever since.

Mrs. Frank alleged that his wife utterly failed in her domestic duties; that she refused to prepare the meals for him; that she was very jealous of her husband with contempt and indifference. She also alleged that he had been guilty of a violent character and cultivating loose associations. At one time she uttered false charges against her husband, which were proved to be untrue by the court after hearing. There were no children by the marriage and she father asked for their custody.

SHELLER VS. BREKLER.
Bettie B. Sheller sought a decree of divorce from George Sheller. They were married in August 12, 1864, and lived together until July 12, 1880. Mrs. Sheller alleged that she neglected her husband with kindness and affection at times and her duty faithfully as wife, and the desertion by her husband was proven to her satisfaction.

W. B. ATKENTON, Passaic City, N. J.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sold by all druggists. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. H. HOOD & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass.

100 Doses One Dollar

Manufacturers of Fine Cigarettes,
ROCHESTER, N.Y.

JUDGE BARCLAY'S BATCH.

Judge Barclay being absent, Judge Lubke at a late hour this afternoon called up the default cases of divorce in Court No. 8 as follows: Della Garrett against Erasmus Garrett; Sarah Schwartz against Joseph Schwartz; James McDonald against Lucy K. McDonald; Louis A. Moore against Frank F. Moore; Mary Ames against Chas. Mutt; Jesse W. Benson, against Monte Benson; Laura Dumm against Henry L. Dumm; Catherine W. Wadman against Gottlieb Wadman; Mary Miller against William Dyer; Johanna Bond against Joseph Sondheimer. The petitioners were of the familiar character—desperate drunkards, cruel treatment and failure to support being the main grounds alleged in support of the prayer for a legal severance.

Judge Valliant's Decisions.

Judge Valliant to-day rendered decisions in the following cases taken under advisement: Kant vs. Gerdeman; judgment for defendant. This was a suit to set aside a deed of conveyance to a sister-in-law, Bailey vs. Bailey; motion to strike out demurrer overruled; demurrer overruled.

BEFORE JUDGE CADY.

Number of Wife-Beaters and Other Sluggers Heavily Fined To-Day.

Judge Cady this morning had a variety of sluggers before him on charges of disturbing the peace. William Peters drew a capital prize of the day, a fine of $50, as Mm. Connor's offense was beating a couple of the inmates of Mm. Connor's disreputable house.

Important Notice

We respectfully notify the public that we have NO BRANCH STORE, but are still at our old store, 1128 and 1130 Olive sts., and are the ONLY successors to the old firm of NATHAN, STERN & CO.

H. J. Nathan & Bro., 1128, 1130 Olive St.

Confirmation of Suits

AT THE GLOBE.

$3.50 TO THE VERY FINEST.

Thousands to select from at prices defying all competition.

Thousands of Children's Suits from $1 to $7.
Thousands of Boys' Suits from $2.50 to $15.
Thousands of Men's Suits of every known material, make and style, from $3.50 to $35.
All alterations to improve its fit in our Tailoring and Department.

IN OUR HAT DEPARTMENT.

Thousands of styles to select from a 10c Cap to the finest Silk Hat (worth $6) at $3.50.

SATISFACTION OR MONEY REFUNDED ALWAYS AT THE

GLOBE.

705, 707, 709, 711 and 713 FRANKLIN AV.

Open until 9 p. m.; Saturdays until 11 p. m. Base ball outfits free with every boy's suit. Ball or bat free with every boy's hat.

der the testimony against him was all in, the Cady asked how often he had been up before. Peters muttered something that sounded very much like three times. "What, three times?" the Court exclaimed. "No, ten times," admitted the defendant. "Fifty dollars," said the Court, and the Roman slinger was led scowling to the prisoners' dock.

John Spika, a wife-beater, was another slugging celebrity who honored the court with a visit. His wife is a woman weighing over 200 pounds, but her face was discolored in a manner which showed that Spika is an artist in his line. She had fully dozen discolorations on her face. Spika and his wife have been separated for some time, and St. Patrick's visited the house where she lives in South St. Louis to get a lodge record-keeping book, and in and gave her a remembrance of the trip, which she carried into court to-day. Judge Cady conferred with the jury, who took an appeal.

Joseph Mueller, a blacksmith at a car-

Who made the best practical opticians in the city, as you may accurately and charge you the lowest.

PRICES: Gold, from.....$1 to $2 00
 Silver, from.....$5 to $12 00
 Glasses repaired quickly, at low prices.

ASK
 For this

Your GROCER
 Brand.

AMUSEMENTS.
OLYMPIC.
 MIGHTY SUCCESS
 OF THE
 GREAT BIG SPECTACLE!

HAGGARD'S
 (GORGEOUS ROMANCE!)
 GILLETTE'S
 GRAND
 ADAPTATION!
 FUEST'S
 WILD
 MUSIC!

SHE

SWEET
 AND TENDER, NOT
 DRY
 AND SALTY.

DIED.

FRUTH.—Our beloved mother, Mrs. CARRIE FRUTH, widow of the late Jacob Fruth, Sunday, March 25, at 11:40 p. m., at the age of 76 years, 3 months and 2 days.

Funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of her son, J. C. Fruth, No. 2632 Sidney street, to Bellefontaine.

THE SENSATION OF THE AGE!
 THE SOUVENIR MATA JOURNAL
 WEEK BOOKS OF "SHE"

[illegible]

the statement he did not intend to be so heavily involved in the case as he had been. He said he had paid no attention to the case. Judge Cady fined her $10 in each case.

On the charge of disturbing the peace against her was Catharine, wife of State Senator, was dismissed at cost, and that against William was dismissed at cost for want of prosecution. Both have large charges of grand larceny pending against them in the upper courts.

Froved an Alibi.

Where were you, sir, when this affair happened yesterday?" asked the Judge. "I was in New York and Canada papers please copy."

ROSE—On March 26, at 9:10 p. m., MORRIS ROSE, at his late residence, 705 South Fourth street, aged 47 years and 6 months, having returned to his home.

Federal Tuesday, March 27, at 2 p. m., from residence, 705 South Fourth street. Friends of the family are invited to attend. Chicago and Kansas City papers please publish.

WOLFF—On Monday, March 26, at 8 a. m., GEORGE M. WOLFF, aged 67 years, Federal services at Centenary M. K. Church Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Friends of the family are invited to attend.

THEY underrated, late of McCann, Rice & Porter, who had been having business relations with the firm, practices in all the courts and attends especially to deeds, wills, accounts, taxes and probate business.

JOHN J. McCANN,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.
No. 511 Pine St., Room 3, St. Louis.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE DE LA REINE & THEATRE DE LA VILLE.

Introducing the favorite comedienne,
Mlle. YVETTE MAILLARD,
And the popular comedians,
Monsieur and Madame FLORENCE.

Next Sunday—FRANK DANIELA in LITTLE NICK.

STANDARD MATINEE.
Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday.
JOS. D. OLIPHANT
COMEDY DRAMA.
RANCH KING.
Next week—W. T. Bryant's great success, KEEF 'T' PAK.

one of those $15 tailor-made suits at GLOBE, 705 to 715 Franklin av.

Miss Carrie Goode of North Grand avenue
goes to Kansas City to visit her sister,

Chas. T. Whitsett, Undertaker.
Lady assistant, modern methods, reasonable charges, 1924 Olive st., opposite Exposition grounds.

PEOPLE'S THEATER.
TO-NIGHT—Matinee Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday—A Great Hit.
The Strange Case of
DR. JERYLL and MR. HYDE, or a Double Life.
Sunday Night, April 1—Tourists in a Pullman Car

Grand Musicals
At the residence of Mrs. F. C. Sherry, corner Garrison and Lucas avenues, by the hostess to be, on Tuesday evening, March 27, at 8 o'clock,
for improvement of Columbia Baptist school room.
SECRETS, $1.00
To be held at Baines & Vickers, Matthews & Lathrop

_____

$22,500.00

To be given to consumers of brands
between November 1st and December 25th, 1888, payable as follows:

3	Cash	Gifts	each	of	$1,000,	amounting	to	$3,000
3	"	"	"	"	500,	"	"	1,500
9	"	"	"	"	250,	"	"	2,250
90	"	"	"	"	100,	"	"	9,000

$22,500.00

To be given to consumers of brands
between November 1st and December 25th, 1888, payable as follows:

3	Cash	Gifts	each	of	$1,000,	amounting	to	$3,000
3	"	"	"	"	500,	"	"	1,500
9	"	"	"	"	250,	"	"	2,250
90	"	"	"	"	100,	"	"	9,000

60	"	"	"	100,	"	0
45	"	"	"	50,	"	2

The following amounts in cash were received during the year ended July 2d, October 1st and December 23d:

1	Cash Gift of	$1,000	$1
1	" "	500
3	" "	250
10	" "	100	1
15	" "	50

PLAN OF

To the person sending to our address
packet wrappers or boxes of Kimball's St Jockey and Velvet brands, with stamps u
the next, the second gift of $300; to th
until all are distributed.

All parcels must be sent by MAIL or County and State and number of wrapper be in our hands by JULY 2d, OCTOBER respective contests will close, when the Sendings for first awards will not be included.

Wm. S. K

Manufacture
ROCHE
Confirmed

Confirmation

$3.50 TO THE VERY FINEST
Thousands to select from at prices defying all petition.
Thousands of Children's Suits from $1 to $7.
Thousands of Boys' Suits from $2.50 to $18.
Thousands of Men's Suits of every known make and style from $3.50 to $25.
At Kew-Fong to Insure $1.75 in our Tail-

IN OUR HAT DEPARTMENT
Thousands of styles, from a 10c Cap to the finest Hat (worth $6) at $3.50.

GLC
705, 707, 709, 711
Open until 9 p. m.; Saturdays until 11 p. m.

ASK
For this

SWEET
and TENDER,

NOT DRY
and SALTY.

GIVE THEM A TRIAL
OUR HAMS and BREAKFAST BACON are selected and cured in this city with the greatest care and attention, and guarantee them to give satisfaction. your grocer does not keep our BRAND.

HAMS notify us, and we will give you address of one that does. See that above BRAND is on the HAM.

COX & CORDON,
Telephone 2209. 1019 South Third

THE undersigned, late of McCann, Rice & Farrington, Real Estate Agents, having returned to profession, practices in all the courts and attends especially to deeds, wills, accounts, taxes and real estate business.

JOHN J. McCANN,
ATTORNEY-AT-LAW,
No. 511 Pine St., Room 2, St. Louis.

AMUSEMENTS.

PEOPLE'S THEATER.
TO-NIGHT—Matinee Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday—A Great Hit.

DR. JEKYLL and MR. HYDE, or a Double L
 Sunday Night, April 1.—Tourists in a Pullman
 and John Meloney's Beauty

DISTRIBUTION. The greatest number of empty 5, 10, 15 or 20 cent Bright Cut, Fragrant Vanity Fair, Superlative, Little Titillated, will be awarded the first gift of $1,000.00; to next three, the third gift of $250 each, and so on, until it be necessary. Satin wrappers must be accompanying our imprint. Wrappers or boxes covering will be divided.

EXPRESS PREPAID. With Name of Sender, Town marked plainly on outside of package, and must

Emball & Co.
of Fine Cigarettes,
STER, N. Y.

---

tion Suite

BOOTS AND SHOES.

From a 25c Child's Shoe to the finest Ladies' French Kid Shoe at $3.

From a Man's 95c Shoe to the finest Kangaroo or French Calf Shoe at $5.

OUR FURNISHING GOODS DEPT.

This week, 100 dozen imported Balbriggan Underwear (worth $1) at 90c.

1,000 dozen Silk Neck Scarfs (worth 35c) at 12 1/2c.

REMEMBER ALWAYS AT THE

AMUSEMENTS.

---

OLYMPIC.

MIGHTY SUCCESS
OF THE GREAT BIG SPECTACLE!

HAGGARD'S
GORGEOUS

THE SENSATION OF THE AGE!
{ THIS SOUVENIR MATINEE WEDNESDAY! }
{ WEEK BOOKS OF "BIE" }
Presented to every person attending.

GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.
The Stoddard Lectures.

To-Night at 8.....TRAVELS IN SUNNY SPAIN Vivid realization of Spanish Life and Scenery.—The Glorious Alhambra.—The Royal Bull Fight.

TUESDAY.....JULIUS CAESAR

Introducing the favorite comedienne,
MISS MARGUERITE FISH,
And the popular comedian,
MR. E. L. WALTON,
Next Sunday—FRANK DANIELS in LITTLE FUCK.

---

STANDARD! MATINEES—Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday.
JOS. D. CLIFTON
COMEDY DRAMA.
RANCH KING.

* Next week—W. T. Bryant's great success, KEEF
ET DARE.

FBI - NEW YORK

ABOUT TOWN.

A LADY signing herself L. D. W. says the police $5 to be divided between Mrs. Ellen Harvey, living at 18 South Twentieth street, and a woman who has been identified as the woman whose destination was reported in Saturday's POST DISPATCH.

AS CAR NO. 22 of the Citizens' Street Railway was going west at 11:15 o'clock last night the coupling-pin came out between Webster and Compton avenues, and the horses taking the car to the westward were thrown over the telegraph pole in front of No. 17 Webster avenue, between Compton and Leonard avenues, killing one of them instantly. No other damage was done.

Bankrupt Furniture Sale.

The immense stock of fine and medium fur-

3 Locust street, at p

Commercial Notes.

The morning opened springlike, birds, after the heaven-sent rain, and everything began to break again. But the malevolent North turned cold, birds, a cold wave this way to fly and the wheat plant will be frozen out. Birds, as may be also you and I. (from Peter Poe Ferguson's ode to the bluebird.)—Reports from Nebraska say the heavy fall of rain and the cold wave has greatly benefited the wheat, and the first and second crops are well. The cold wave of the 23d.,—New Orleans cleared

Following report for week
mean temperature of temperatures considerably below the normal range of temperature was unusually great, and the result was a severe frost in the northern, central and western parts of the state, and about the average elsewhere. The frost was not so severe as it was in the south, where heavy rains, has been very detrimental to the wheat crop. The wheat is generally reported to be in good condition, but is greatly injured by the cold weather. The fruit trees have also been injured to some extent. In the north the fruit trees are reported to be injured. A private wire to Fath, Ewald & Co., Chicago, dated Jan. 10, 1891, says: "The weather is very cold. The people are suffering. Scorpions are watching wheat. Wheat is higher on bad weather. Illinois is a good country. The people are suffering. Corn presents no special features. The people are suffering. Scorpions are watching wheat."

began biddin
buying for

are starting on decrease of stocks East. Noted orders for wheat, corn and clover seed are doing wheat. M. C. Mitchell bought some seed corn started the crowd. Trading is mostly local. Grain visible will show decrease of about six hundred thousand bushels. Decrease at seaboard was large. Corn and clover seed are steady on strong grain market. Ribs and lard quiet. Pork moderately active. Wright & Baldwin sold. Duluth market for wheat and corn follows: snow and windstorm here for past six days. Has blockaded roads, and as soon as it is cleared the receipts here will be very large. It is expected that the rice and corn will be shipped from southern ports.

Ruprecht has been wheat, Sawyer a
some in a quiet way buying corn. May wheat, McIntyre says, is the best. Foreign houses are selling December and buying May wheat. Our private cables London and Liverpool grain prices are quite good, and, in fact, the wool classes went Chicago, wired Samuel: "Halliday, Cairo, wires that damage to winter wheat in their section is less than we estimate." The Produce Exchange Weekly, by special report from statistician Dodge, gives the explanation of the department of the figures and verification of the amount in farmers' hands. The average of the crop in the United States for March for the last 5 years has been 23.8 per

the crop this year is the ment in bushels:

ble 1887.....	456,000,000
ble supply July 1, 1887.....	34,000,000
Total.....	490,000,000
ed, July 1 to February.....	187,000,000
ed, winter wheat.....	84,000,000
ers, July 1 to February.....	$9,000,000
ble, March 1, '88.....	86,000,000
farmers' hands, March.....	132,000,000
'88.....	480,000,000
accounted for.....	10,000,000

the statement goes on to say that it is no
 he takes into account the amount in transit,

ous years it gives the years, 1880 to 1886 in

[illegible]

many that the crop
ger than that of

	Mich. 24 '88.	Mich. 17 '88.	Mich. 26 '87.
Wheat.....	35,425,744	36,297,747	52,411,694
Barley.....	1,081,273	1,081,273	1,081,273
Oats.....	4,081,273	4,081,273	8,987,075

_____

FIRST WOMAN IN CAMP.

Strong Sympathy for the Lady Who Was So Distressingly Deformed.

From the Rocky Mountain News.

Every miner in the camp was excited and talking about it. Now, it took some very important event to thoroughly arouse all the men along the gulch. A row in which only one man was killed was considered a very unimportant society event, and an ordinary boxing match could attract much attention. What was it?

1. It was the first Horse Gulch.
I had finished her

the young lady that had been brought down from the hills, a fresh, jolly man, who was a large stockholder in one of the principal mines in the gulch. He had brought her home, a young girl of 20, with a white face, and he wanted to show her something of the wild and rugged West. It had been many a month since boys had seen a woman, and hence everyone wanted to see her. The girls of the town, of the hospitalities of White Horse Gulch, all the latch strings were out, and she had been well welcomed to the best red roofed mansions of the country. And, indeed, any woman would have appeared welcome. A dried-up old maid from New

in boys are very

men, and old maids are given a fair show
try time.
The boys were all charmed by the polite
and handsome face of the young man, but there was a look of deep sympathy in his eyes of all when they saw her. "It is bad," was the prevailing sentiment of the group.
"What a handsome face, pard," exclaimed
one to his friend, "but how unfortunate."
"I admired her handsome face, others admired her beautiful black hair and others
her well-shaped foot, but all pined her for her formity."
That evening, after the young lady had re-

y proud, became Finally, one ha

rest, said it was a pity she was deformed.
ones of sympathy he told the uncle how hearts of all the miners in White Horse
sh had gone out towards him for her admi-
rations!" shouted the enraged whole.
Missed! Why, she is only wearing one of the blondest Missal bustles." And everybody replied in a chorus: Missal! Missal! What's a beauty!

